Dear Sirs,

OUR CLIENT: ANDREAS GUIBEB

We wish to advise that we have been consulted by and act for Andreas Guibeb and our client's instructions are as follows:

1. This response should not be deemed to be exhaustive of our client's contentions and to the extent that it is necessary, our client will answer in due course the allegations more fully and nothing left unanswered should be deemed to be admitted.
2. A vast majority of the allegations are untrue, without foundation, fanciful and defamatory and the conclusions that seem to be arrived at simply have no link with anything. Our client, though, is not prepared to comment on extracts from the book and we require the full manuscript to be able to see in which context these are written prior to further comment.
3. In this regard, we require a written undertaking to be received at these offices within seven (7) days of date hereof, that you will furnish us with a copy of the manuscript together with any further amendments thereto for our client's perusal and comment, prior to any publication,
4. Our client furthermore requires to know why issues relating to his late brother, himself and his wife and family are pertinent to a book dealing with murders of Dulcie September, Anton Lubowski and Chris Hani.
5. We await to hear from you urgently and in the interim, our client's rights are reserved.

Yours faithfully,
