

Mr Bogdan Letowt

Dear Mr Letowt

We will be publishing a book which deals with the murder of Mr Chris Hani in Boksburg in 1993. We have revisited the police dossier on the Hani case and see that you were listed as a contact in Mr Janusz Walus' diary. A company associated with you, Polski Trading, is also noted in Mr Walus' diary. Our research has shown that Polski Trading was, in the early nineties, well-connected with certain circles in South African politics.

Could you in that regard comment on the following allegation, namely that Mr 'Pik' Botha, the then government minister, was said to have given you a difficult time about one specific business deal in which 'he did not get a cut'?

In view of the fact that you personally have been mentioned in the US and Polish press as someone with an interest in military electronics; that it has been reported that you were once instrumental in a Polish arms offer to South Africa and as a middle man in arms sales to Angola, could you comment on the assumption that Letowt-Vorbek and Polski Trading, amongst other companies, were involved in military trading and related circumvention of sanctions (before 1994)?

We would also very much appreciate it if you could give us some background on your relationship with Janusz Walus.

Yours sincerely

Jacana researchers
